WHAT IS THE DIGITAL INCLUSIVE NETWORK?

The Digital Inclusive Network, led by Good Things Foundation, brings together thousands of community organisations, charities and public services to make digital inclusion a reality for everyone.

TOGETHER
WE CAN HELP
MORE PEOPLE GET ONLINE, LEARN AND SUCCEED.

WHO WE SUPPORT

We help people who may be:

- ✓ New to the internet
- ✓ Lacking confidence or skills
- ✓ Unable to afford devices
- ✓ Facing barriers to getting online

Everyone deserves the chance to benefit from the digital world.

HOW WE HELP

Through the Digital Inclusive
Network, we can help people:

- ✓ Develop essential digital skills
- ✓ Access free or low cost training
- ✓ Get support to use devices
- ✓ Build confidence online
- ✓ Stay safe and connected

Small steps today.
Big changes for tomorrow.

WHAT WE CAN OFFER

We can connect people to:

- ✓ Digital skills training
- ✓ One-to-one support
- ✓ Community learning sessions
- ✓ Tools and resources
- ✓ Ongoing guidance

Practical support.
Real impact.

WORKING TOGETHER FOR CHANGE

By being part of the Digital Inclusive Network, we:

- ✓ Share knowledge and resources
- ✓ Collaborate with local partners
- ✓ Reach more people
- ✓ Create stronger communities

Stronger together.
Better connected.

LET'S BUILD A MORE INCLUSIVE DIGITAL FUTURE

Digital skills open doors to education, employment, healthcare, money management and so much more.
We're here to help you get online, learn new skills and unlock opportunities.

NO ONE LEFT BEHIND. EVERYONE INCLUDED.

Together, we can make digital work for everyone.
